

Dear Parents,

This Week

The school has been buzzing this week with preparations for this year's play 'The Grumpy Sheep' with dancing and singing round every corner. A letter has gone out this week with details of costumes for each class. Please check children's bags.

Preparations for the Christmas Fair tomorrow are nearly complete. Thank you for your donations and offers of help. Christmas will arrive tonight so please come along and help us decorate the school. The school will be open from 11am tomorrow morning for children to set up their stalls.

I look forward to seeing you at the fair tomorrow.

Parent Governor Election

We have a vacancy for an All Saints' parent representative. Please contact me if you would like to talk about what this important and rewarding role involves. Nomination forms are available from the school office.

Class News

Highlights of the week.

Oak Class: This week in literacy we have been reading poems. We have discussed whether a poem rhymes, repeats words or has numbers in it.

Mrs Batts urgently needs helpers to hear children read. If you can spare an hour any day she would really like to hear from you.

Ash Class: We had a wonderful time at the Coventry Transport Museum on Wednesday. The children were excited to see all the different vehicles and the world's fastest car! We have written letters to each other in literacy to explain all about our day.

Dudley Class: A week of amazing acting and super singing! In the build up to The Christmas Play, Dudley's inner-thespian has helped them to perform to the best of their ability. Dudley are very excited for Saturday's Christmas Fayre!

Waller Class: This week we have been continuing to examine, analyse and discuss different Greek Myths. We have written descriptions of mythological creatures and in poetry personified winter in the form of Jack Frost.

Wise Class: This week Wise Class were at Kenilworth School performing in the Gymnastics and Dance Festival. We had prepared a routine to the new James Bond theme and the children were brilliant. They shared great skill, timing and strength- well done all!

LOST Cake Box

Somebody bought a cake in a large white cake box with a plastic lid at the last cake sale. Please return to school.
